Mimi was a CNA in Carthage, Pinehurst, and Vass, primarily for elderly patients. She was a fierce lover of animals and a tireless advocate for animal welfare.

There will be a gathering in celebration of her life at her home: 284 Manor Road, Carthage on Sunday, December 2 from noon until 5 pm.

“ I’m so sorry that I missed the service. I grew up with Mimi and have fond memories of all of her family. We were play mates and went to school together. So many memories but I’m at a loss for what to share. The main thing that I remember is that Mimi loved her friends and family unconditionally. Mimi’s passing is a loss felt by many. —Ron and Vonnie Thomas

“ This news was such a shock! I remember when Mimi was a little tiny girl. She was so loving. She was a special child.
Please accept my condolences to Mom Shari and Mimi’s family. I loved them all like my own.
