“ Another shared moment with Angel. When WG was so sick and asked to be taken off life support, Angel asked me to be with them. It was a quietly emotional moment. His Dr was so comforting. We said a prayer and she turned off support. WG went quietly asleep holding our hands. We cried a little and then rejoiced knowing that he was resting in the arms of Jesus. Shedding a tear as I write this. I love you Angel and WG. You will always remain in my heart.

“ Angel, my sister Patsy and I were teenagers. We flew to Miami to spend Christmas with Mama Corrye and Papa. They gave us beautiful tartan plaid scarves and berets. We wore them to the Orange Bowl Game.

MM

Angel once to;d me one summer she baby sat for my husband , "Tom-bo"... Tommy Minges of Rocky Mount when he was just a little fellow...he got away from her and when she called around the neighborhood, she found out he was "making the rounds" having lunch with everybody that invited him!!!! Isn't that just like a little boy!?! Angel was a real sweetheart and too smart for me...marrying into the Minges family for 47 years has been a real experience...Much love to Beryl and family...Beryl, the best sister a girl could ever have...lucky Angel. Now Angel is living up to her name in Heaven. XOXO Morrie & Tommy
