“ One MOMENT came and went in a flash. I woke up sitting next to you and I knew you were gone.

One HOUR came and went in a flash. I fell asleep at 11:00 and you were gone at 12:00.

Three WEEKS came and went in a flash. We brought you home on March 23rd and you were gone on April 10th.

Five YEARS came and went in a flash. We moved you closer to us in 2015 and you were gone in 2020.

13 YEARS came and went in a flash. I knew you had begun this journey at 74 and you were gone at 87.

56 YEARS came and went in a flash. Yours was the first touch I felt and mine was the last you felt. And now you are gone.

A LIFE came and went in a flash. You were brought to this world in 1933 and then you were gone...in one MOMENT...

All who knew you are better for it...

I love you,
Baby Boy

“ Wink is what I called her, she was my mother’s closest friend. They did so many fun things together but I mostly remember the giggling. The two of them were as tight as two friends could be, inside jokes, knowing glances, daily chats. Even after both moved on from Kings Park, they remained very close. When I was mad at my parents I would go talk to Wink and she always had time to listen. She loved me and I loved her back! I still do! I’m happy to know that Wink and J.J. (she called mom J.J.) are together giggling in heaven. Did I mention how beautiful she was? A smile that never faded not even toward the end! I’m thankful to Tim and Tom who have become wonderful men and stepped up to the challenge of caring for their precious mother. I’m proud of you boys! I wish I could be there to hug your necks! Maybe now you can take a ride to TN and see what the “dragon” is all about. Love to all 4 of you Chip, Jim, Tom, and Tim. Tracye Jeacock Webb 🥰
