“ Daddy I know you aren't suffering now. My days are alot harder knowing you aren't a phone call away anymore. I didn't get a whole lot of time with you, but I do cherish every minute good or bad with you. You use to make me laugh with some of the things you use to say like duh, big red truck, egg muffin or I seen it in a book one time. Just didn't saying like that, that would throw anyone off and make them say huh?. I know you aren't suffering now and you can rest in peace now. There isn't a min or day that goes by you aren't on my mind... I'm very thankful and grateful for what time I did get. I hope I make you proud. You will forever be in my heart and missed. I love you daddy... rest easy, now....

Summer - so sorry for your loss. We met your dad Thru his brother Terry who worked for us in the restoration business. Your dad and Vic worked for us one summer in Heber Springs, Arkansas building a cedar cabin. We have lots of good memories and stories from that summer. Your dad and Vic were hard workers but gave each other such a hard time - as only brothers can do to each other. It was a great summer and we talk about your dad and Vic often when we drive by the exit to that cabin.
