

Claud David Hogan

June 16, 1944 - May 27, 2021

Claud David Hogan went to be with Jesus on Thursday morning, May 27th. He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his spouse, Olga Hogan and his son, Mitchell and wife, Dana. Additionally, he leaves behind his brother, Tommy and wife, Angie Hogan, his sister, Kathy Wilson and sister Carolyn Brown and husband, Wylie Brown. He has sisters-in-law Betty Hogan and Ruth Hogan along with many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was pre-deceased by both his parents, Reece and Polly Hogan. David was pre-deceased by brothers, Harold Hogan, Larry Hogan and Danny Hogan. Additionally, he was pre-deceased by a sister-in-law, Beverly Hogan and a brother-in-law, Jim Wilson.

David retired after 34 years as an electronic technician working for civil service at Ft. Bragg, NC. He served 6 years in the National Guard Signal Unit in Albemarle, NC. He had a servant's heart and a quick wit. He was a skilled woodcrafter and carpenter. David was known by many as "Mr. Fix It" because he would make a way to rebuild or repair almost any item when there did not seem to be a way for it to work. He loved God, his family and his church family and served them well. We know he heard "well done, thy good and faithful servant" when he entered God's presence.

Celebration of Life service will be held on Saturday, June 5th at 11:30 AM at New Hope Baptist Church on Rosehill Road, Fayetteville, NC. In lieu of

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mark was so happy for the visit you both made to our home a few months ago. It meant so much to Mark to be able to spend time with you both. I believe they are in heaven rejoicing with Jesus. We love you. Beth Strider and family.

“ We are saddened by the passing of David. What a fine person he was. He was kind hearted, friendly and a vital part of our family. He was always jovial and somewhat witty. We will greatly miss him. May God be with Olga and Mickey and all his family.
