“ I’m hoping that this is the right Donna Gail Cain that I knew. First of all, my love and condolences to her family. She was Avery good family friend. She was my daughter’s Godmother when she lived in Grifton North Carolina. I believe that she moved to Fayetteville to be with her ailing mom. Granny Cain was a sweet woman too. We lost touch after that. One day, not too long ago, I tried looking her up. This is what I found. I cried and said a prayer to her for being such a terrible friend. I have enclosed a picture, can you tell me if I have the right Donna G Cain. Sincerely, Dawn Long (mona62459@yahoo.com)
