“ My father was an amazing person who made sure his kids had everything even if that meant he had nothing. I am so thankful we spent the last two years of his life right by his side with his grand babies. I'm going to miss not having you around, cheering me on for every little thing i did. You were always so proud of me, no matter what. Your service was beautiful today, I enjoyed hearing how you made an impact on everyone's life in that church and so many more outside. As we always used to say, See you later alligator. ❤️🙏
