Elaine was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, lived most of her life in New Jersey & then after her husband's retirement moved to Roseboro, North Carolina in 1999. She loved to cook & later in life loved to be on her computer—staying in touch with family & friends as well as making new ones.

Elaine sought to enjoy life the best she could. She was most familiar with the route between New Jersey & Florida visiting family & friends up & down the east. Later in life her travels diminished yet she sought to keep in touch with as many as possible. Though her passing took many by surprise, her memory will forever be in our hearts & minds.
