

Jesse James Turner Jr

November 26, 1944 - August 17, 2021

Jesse James Turner Jr. of Hope Mills went home to be with the Lord on August 17th, 2021. He was born November 26th, 1944 to the late Jesse James Turner Sr. and Shirley Scott Turner. Jesse was preceded in death by two brothers Freeman Turner of Virginia and Fennon Turner of Fayetteville, NC.

Evelyn and Jesse were married 59 years. They were proud of their children James Anthony Turner of Hope Mills and Mary Ann Davis and her husband Steve Davis of Autryville. They had two grandsons Matthew Lance Davis of Georgia and Joshua Blake Davis of Bethany. Jesse and Evelyn loved their children and grandsons but there was nothing to compare to having four great grandchildren. Bailey Davis, Dudley Richardson, Starr Rice and Giovanni Wells with a new arrival expecting next month, Kinsley Grace Davis.

The Turners had a calling on their life and that was to sing and witness for the Lord. This was their passion. They had just recently released a new CD. The Turners loved their church, church family, and pastor, Rev. Bruce Brunfield. Evelyn was the pianist at their church, East Fayetteville Church of God. “ Jesse & Evelyn, you were such kind, caring people. Jesse always made a phone call to offer fresh veggies from his garden & I saw Evelyn, almost daily walking her dog. Jesse on his lawn mower & Evelyn piddling in the yard, never failed to throw up their hands & wave. You were awesome neighbors & will be missed by so many. I can just picture the two of you walking through those pearly gates , hand in hand. R.I.P. our neighbors.
