

Lee Kent Bolerjack

January 9, 1963 - June 26, 2015

Carthage - Lee Kent Bolerjack, 52 of Carthage, NC peacefully passed away, June 26, 2015 after a brief illness. He was born and raised in Joliet, IL and was a graduate of Joliet Township (Central) High School, class of 1981.

Lee was very skilled in luxury import auto repair. He owned his own shop in Pinehurst, NC that also served as a social gathering place for all. Lee never turned down a late night to help his friends. He loved riding his motorcycle and traveling. He loved his kids, his life and his dog; he always seized the opportunity to brag on them. He lived his life a quarter turn at a time; despite any situation he was always sure, "It'll all work out and it will be okay."

He was preceded in death by his parents, Thurman and Marguerite (Cantu) Bolerjack.

He is survived by his loving children, Marissa Tegan Bolerjack and son-in-law, Jason Handy; son, Daniel Bolerjack; one grandson, Louis Han Bolerjack; a sister, Mardolyn (Robert) Vescovi; nephews, Patrick Al Pelaez and Anthony Vescovi; nieces, Sally Vescovi and Kristen Opielinski; numerous cousins and his beloved dog Alvin.

A gathering will be held in memory of Lee from 12-2 pm Saturday, July 11th at Broad Street Bar & Grill.

Arrangements by: Cape Fear Crematory of Stedman, NC.

“ Lee was one of the kindest, big hearted men I have ever met. I don't think I have ever met a man that loved his dog more than he did.
