

Leon Paul Jameson

November 23, 1969 - March 30, 2014

Leon Paul Jameson, 44, of Cameron (formerly of Charlotte) died suddenly at his home on Sunday, March 30, 2014. Leon was born in Concord, N.H. He attended Merrimack Valley High School. He later moved to North Carolina and followed his passion for computer science. He attended Brookstone College, graduating with honors. He opened PC Clinic where he built and repaired computers for six years.

He was survived by his mother, Priscilla Morse of Concord, N.H.; step-father, Rick Tilton of Cameron; sister and brother-in-law, Sharon and Brian Lantz of Sanford; stepbrother, James Erickson of Independence, MO; nephew Jake Jones and niece Chloe Lantz. He also leaves behind his faithful 4-legged companion, Cosmo.

Leon will always be remembered for his hearty laugh, his quick wit, and his unique facial expression when shooting pool. Service will be held at a later date.
