“ My fondest memories of my Dad are the walks he used to take me on to the corner gas station where he had friends he would chat with for awhile, our trip to Canada was amazing, the stories he would tell. He was so knowledgeable, he was a family man well loved and liked by all. My greatest memories will be the year he dressed up as Santa Claus, the little nick names he had for me " My Little Princess" " My Pussycat" singing to me " Your Daddy's Little Girl" stepping upon his feet and dancing. He will truly be missed but I know I am blessed to have the "Memories" My condolences to Barb, Mike, Barbara, Bre, Jen and her family as well as many other family members I know this is hard for you also he was such a big part of your lives for a very long time. His legacy is all our memories what he instilled in each of us that we will carry on to our children and their children.
