

Rebecca Ann Campbell

December 11, 1952 - August 31, 2012

Rebecca Ann Campbell, 59, of Hope Mills, passed away at home peacefully, surrounded by family on Friday.

She was born to Virginia Fletcher Bachant and the late Joseph C. Bachant on December 11, 1952 in Washington, D.C. She married Richard Campbell on May 7, 1981 and Rick and Becky settled in Hope Mills, where they raised their children. Known as Coach Becky to the flag football teams she coached, Mrs. Campbell to the students she substitute taught in the Cumberland County School System, or simply Mom to many, Becky touched countless lives through the many ways she served the community, her friends, and her family. Becky is survived by her husband, Rick; her mother, Virginia Bachant; two daughters and their spouses, Shannon and Reid Gunn and Megan and Adam Rennhack; a son, Chad Campbell; a brother and his spouse, James and Crystal Bachant; and two grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joseph C. Bachant; a son, Joseph W. Campbell; and a brother, Stephen Bachant.

A memorial service will be privately held for the family. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a blood, platelet, or monetary donation to a nearby donation center.

Tribute Wall

“ Rebecca Ann Campbell

October 09, 2023 at 04:46 AM

“ Rebecca Ann Campbell

October 08, 2023 at 11:29 AM

“ Rebecca Ann Campbell

October 05, 2023 at 02:31 PM

“ I knew Becky and her two brothers and her wonderful Mom and Dad, Fletch and Joe. We met in Okinawa in 1968. They were a marvelous family, and treated me like a 4th child. I will never forget them. Bill Kane

Bill Kane - May 31, 2015 at 01:32 PM