“ Rhonda and I were in the class of '77 at CFHS. We were always friends. Neither of us knew that we'd become family, but it never changed how we felt about each other. Rhonda was always a free spirit and it takes a very special kind of person to be free spirited. She was always so beautiful to me with her vibrant natural red hair. She shot straight off the shoulder like her mom, so you always knew where she was coming from. I love you, Rhonda. I am thankful that God gives us rest and peace. Tell Nellie to teach you how to make that Coconut Cake. So much love ❤️.
