“ Some of the best years of my life were spent singing with Sammy and the New South River Boys... Sammy sang a song, Fathers Table Grace, and sang it with such love and passion for our Lord and Savior. He would get so excited when it was time to hook that trailer up to his truck and we would head out to sing. He kept my son fed with Gerber Baby Food and always had a smile on his face.... He was such a great man, Husband, Friend, and Father. Rest In Peace my brother.
