“ When Sheila & I was little Aunt Delia & Uncle Wink lived in a great big house on Hillandale Road. They worked but our Granny was there. When it was raining & we had nothing to do we'd go into Aunt Delia room & get her slips, dresses & shoes. The slips went on our heads so we would have long hair. We clomped back & forth upstairs Going from store to store until Granny couldn't take it anymore. Then she made us take a nap. But we never went to sleep. (Sorry Granny) We had the best times when we were kids. I'll never forget all the memories I have of SHEILA. Rest in Peace my Love. You'll be missed by all!

“ Sheila was one of my sweetest cousins ever. The four girls and I babysat together as well as attending the West Durham recreation center or some dancing. Such a sweet and genuine person. May she Rest In Peace. Love Cousin Bonnie
