

Shirley Altier Fowler

April 16, 2013

Shirley Altier-Fowler, 81, died April 16, 2013 at Sampson Regional Medical Center.

Ms. Fowler was born in New Haven, Connecticut and carried great passion for the rights of others, especially women. She became one of the first women bank managers in Connecticut and retired from American National after a successful and fulfilling career. After moving to South Florida, she worked for the Gold Coast Bank for the next decade. Ms. Fowler loved Florida sunsets, children, animals, cheeseburgers, and most of all, her family and friends. She was an avid believer in democracy, her country, and lived life with an endlessly giving heart that will be dearly missed.

Ms. Fowler is survived by her son, Robert Altier, and wife, Melissa, of Roseboro, NC; daughter, Pamela Everett of Plantation, FL; son, Eric Altier of Ft Lauderdale, FL; grandchildren Kristin Everett, James Everett, Stephanie Boucher, Megan Everett, all of South Florida; Robert and Matthlew Altier of Roseboro, NC, and great grandchildren Lily Abigail and Michelina, both of South Florida.

The family will receive friends at the home of her son, Robert Altier, 4590 Fayland Drive, on Sunday, April 21 between 1:30 and 4:30 PM. Services will be held in David, Florida.
